

NOMINATION OF GUARDIANS
OF THE
PERSON AND ESTATE
OF MINOR CHILD/CHILDREN

1. Nomination of Guardian(s).

[OPTION 1: Nomination of one (1) guardian in order of priority]

-

If it is necessary to appoint a guardian of the person, or estate, or both, of any minor child of the undersigned, the undersigned hereby nominate(s) the following individuals, in the order of priority designated below, to serve without bond:

First: _____;

Second: _____;

\Third _____.

If, for any reason, any individual nominated above is unable or unwilling to act as guardian of the person, or estate, or both, the undersigned nominates the next individual designated above as such guardian.

[OPTION 2: Nomination of co-guardians to serve together]

If it is necessary to appoint a guardian of the person, or estate, or both, of any minor child of the undersigned, the undersigned hereby nominate(s) the following individuals, in the order of priority designated below, to act as co-guardians, to serve without bond:

First: _____ and _____;

Second: _____ and _____;

Third _____ and _____.

If, for any reason, an individual designated above is unable or unwilling to act as guardian of the person, or estate, or both, the undersigned nominate(s) the remaining individual to act as sole guardian. If, for any reason, both individuals designated as co-guardians are unwilling or unable to act, the undersigned nominate(s) the other individuals designated above, in the order of priority indicated, to act as guardians of the person, or estate, or both.

2. Contact with Other Family Members. [OPTIONAL—THIS SECTION IS APPLICABLE ONLY IF CHECKED] The undersigned believes that frequent and continuing association between the minor child/children and other family members is in the best interests of the child/children. The undersigned wants the minor child/children to have frequent and continuing contact with both other members of the family of the undersigned and the guardian is directed to work toward that end. The guardian shall make reasonable efforts to foster a good relationship between the minor child/children and other members of the undersigned’s family. Also, the guardian should encourage visits by the child/children’s relatives. Other family members of the undersigned should be allowed to communicate with the child/children, and the child/children should be allowed reasonable opportunity to communicate with their relatives. This statement of the wishes of the undersigned concerning the child/children’s contact with other family members is not intended to, and shall not, create legal rights in such family members.

3. Access to Information for and Consultation with Other Family Members. [OPTIONAL—THIS SECTION IS APPLICABLE ONLY IF CHECKED] Consistent with our child//children’s right to privacy, any significant change in a child’s health, well-being, medical treatment (especially medical emergencies), or educational progress, or any significant educational or other event, known to the guardian may, in the sole and absolute discretion of the guardian, be communicated to the child/children’s closest relatives. Without limiting the scope of the guardian’s authority or responsibility, we request that the guardian also consult with family members of the undersigned on material matters affecting the health, support, education, and welfare of our minor children, taking into account the best interests of the child/children, and where possible or appropriate, the child/children’s desires.

4. Prior Nominations. The undersigned hereby revoke(s) any prior nominations of guardian made by the undersigned prior to the date on which this nomination is executed.

The undersigned declare(s) under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

Dated: _____

Signature

Print Name

Signature

Print Name

www.velascolawgroup.com | 562-432-5541

DISCLAIMER: Use of the Nomination of Guardians (NG) form does not in any way create an attorney-client relationship with Velasco Law Group, APC (VLG) or constitute a solicitation by VLG for its services. The NG form is not complete without the individual user making a personal selection of the various options offered in those sections where a choice must be made and then checking the appropriate box. The NG does not have to be notarized or witnessed to be valid. VLG cannot take responsibility for forms that are incomplete or are otherwise not completed correctly by the user. VLG also emphasizes that the NG form is not intended to be a substitute for a comprehensive estate plan that includes, the creation of revocable living trusts, wills, powers of attorney and other important documents. VLG strongly recommends that each individual user of this form engage a highly qualified attorney who specializes in estate planning and trust law to review the user's current family and financial situation and make appropriate recommendations for a complete estate plan.